AND THE BAR STANDARDS BOARD OF ENGLAND & WALES

CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCY IN PRISON LAW: 2018/2019

DISTANCE LEARNING

This Distance Learning Course is designed for those whose work brings them into day to day contact with prisoners, as such it is ideal for Prison Governors, Prison Officers, Solicitors, Fee-Earners and Barristers, or indeed prisoners themselves. The course requires no prior prison law knowledge but an understanding of English public/private law is advisable.

The course consists of eight self-contained Modules and, once registered on the course, you will receive a user name and password allowing you to access the eight modular full texts and the eight video lectures – for prisoner candidates the course is delivered by secured .pdf files sent to the prison and the lectures are on DVDs.

The lectures are delivered by Julian Coningham, Solicitor, Higher Courts Advocate and managing partner with Cominghams Solicitor – Julian has practiced prison law, human right and judicial review for 25 years and is considered an expert in his field.

Each Module consists of around six hours work, and each Module ends with a multiple choice examination which you must submit for marking.

The Course leads to the Certificate of Competency in Prison Law and brings with it membership of the Institute of Prison Law, allowing the Certificate holder to display the Institute's 'Prison Law Qualified' on stationary and advertising.

The Certificate is gained by successful completion of the eight examinations, with a minimum 80% pass mark in each; if you obtain less than 80% in a module you have the choice of resitting it (£24.99) or simply moving on to the next module – in which case you can complete the course but you will not be awarded the Certificate.

Once you have passed the course you are accredited by the Institute of Prison Law for one year, continued accreditation requires you to attend a one-day Prison Law Update Course usually held in London in October each year, no further examinations are necessary.

COSTS: the total cost of the course is £999.00+VAT this includes all eight online modular texts, eight video lectures, registration fees, marking fees (except exam resits as detailed above), and a complimentary copy of The Prisons Handbook (latest edition 2017), the definitive 1200-page annual guide to the penal system of England and Wales, is provided free of charge.

The course must be purchased as a single entity, in advance of dispatch; regrettably we cannot offer a pay-as-you-go option as access to the course provides access to all the course material.

LECTURER: Solicitor, HCA, Julian Coningham.
