The Prisons Handbook 2017

NINETEENTH EDITION (2017): The Prisons Handbook is the definitive annual guide to prisons in England and Wales that has always won outstanding reviews for its scale, clarity and dependability. The 2017 edition is fully updated with a 583-page Section 1 containing a comprehensive A-Z of all penal establishments based on the very latest independent Prison Inspection / IMB Reports. There are eight further sections, including a comprehensive 25 chapter advice section that spans authoritatively reception through to release; a directory of helpful organisations; a comprehensive legal section; a forum; all the latest annual reports and there are further sections for prison governors and staff along with all the latest facts and figures, including Parliamentary Questions, Deaths in Custody, Awards and Prizes, and much more.

"...an important source of information for anyone with an interest in how our prisons operate."
Rt. Hon Elizabeth Truss MP, Secretary of State for Justice and Lord Chancellor (2017)

"Right at the top of its class" Phil Wheatley, Director General, HM Prison Service.

"A tour-de-force through current penal policy and practice"
Prison Service Journal.

"An incredible reference book, I keep a copy in my top drawer and refer to it regularly" Sir Martin Narey, CEO NOMS

MARK LEECH FRSA is the Founder and former Chief Executive of the national Ex-Offenders charity, UNLOCK. Prior to his release in 1995 he spent almost 20 years in 62 of Britain's prisons where his experiences made him a passionate spokesman for penal reform. Mark has been Editor of The Prisons Handbook since its first edition in 1995; in 2003 he also became its publisher. Mark is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, the Director of The Institute of Prison Law, a Law Society accredited training body, he is the consultant to two law firms and an Expert Witness on prison-related legal cases. In the UK he owns several award-winning Thai restaurants and today Mark lives quietly among the rice fields and mountains of beautiful Northern Thailand; outside of work, his interests are in aviation; Mark is a qualified helicopter pilot.
